

Abstract Acceptance Letter for Project

Dear [Recipient Name],

Thank you for submitting your abstract titled [Abstract Title] for project [Project Name].

The committee has reviewed your abstract and would like to gladly convey to you their acceptance decision.

What's next?

The final approval of the project is pending your discussion with the committee where your abstract and project will be reviewed in more detail. For this discussion please prepare a small presentation with points you would like to highlight. The date and time will be set any time this week and shared with you accordingly.

Congratulations and well done!

Best Regards
