Apology Letter For Assault

Dear [Victim's Name],

I am writing this letter to offer my sincerest apologies for the assault that I committed against you. My actions were completely unacceptable, and I take full responsibility for what happened. There is no excuse for the pain and trauma that I caused you. I understand that my behavior was violent and unacceptable, and I am deeply ashamed of my actions. I know that my apology cannot undo what has been done, but I hope that it can offer some measure of comfort and closure for you. I want you to know that I am committed to making things right. I will do everything in my power to ensure that I never commit such an act again. I will seek counseling and therapy to address the underlying issues that led to my behavior, and I will work tirelessly to make amends for the harm that I have caused.

I also understand that you may not be ready to forgive me, and I respect that. I only ask that you give me the opportunity to prove myself and demonstrate that I am committed to making things right. Once again, I am deeply sorry for what happened. Please know that I am committed to doing everything in my power to make amends and ensure that nothing like this ever happens again. Sincerely,

[Your Name]
