

Apology Letter For Plagiarism

Dear [Recipient],

I am writing this letter to apologize for my actions that led to the plagiarism of [subject/project/paper].

I am deeply sorry for the distress and disappointment I have caused to you and the people involved.

I understand that plagiarism is a serious offense, and it is unacceptable in any academic or professional setting. I take full responsibility for my actions and I understand the consequences of my behavior.

I want to assure you that this was an isolated incident and that it does not reflect my true character. I acknowledge my mistake and I am committed to making things right.

I have taken the necessary steps to address the issue by [state the steps you have taken to correct the plagiarism]. I hope that this will help in rectifying the situation.

Again, I apologize for the inconvenience and disappointment that I have caused you. I am willing to do whatever it takes to make amends for my actions and to regain your trust.

Thank you for taking the time to read my letter. Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any further concerns or questions.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
