

Sample letter to appeal for not being included in a recent wave of promotions

Dear Management,

It came to my attention that my name was among the people who were recently promoted as part of the ongoing role reviews at the company.

I find that to be quite surprising given the fact that some of the promoted staff joined long after I did and others have not demonstrated the same level of dedication and commitment that I have been exhibiting for almost ten years now.

I don't like to make comparisons to others as each person is unique in their own way, but when it comes to business and productivity, the criteria for promotions should be well defined and there should not be much room for subjectivity.

If there is a specific reason as to why I was not among those who got promoted, then please share it with me, otherwise kindly review my rightful request for a higher position given my solid performances, dedication, and commitment.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
