

Child Custody Appeal Letter Template

Dear Family Court,

I am writing to appeal the recent child custody decision regarding my [child's name]. I am deeply invested in the well-being of my child and would like to provide additional information for your consideration.

[Explain any relevant factors or changes in circumstances that may impact the child's best interests, such as a change in living situation or new support system.] I am committed to fostering a loving and supportive environment for my child.

I kindly request a review of the child custody decision and hope for a positive reconsideration. Your thoughtful consideration is vital for the future of my child.

Thank you for your understanding and consideration.

Sincerely,
