

Workers' Compensation Appeal Letter Template

Dear Workers' Compensation Board,

I am writing to appeal the decision to deny my workers' compensation claim for [work-related injury/illness]. I believe that my injury/illness is a direct result of my job duties and would like to provide additional information for your consideration.

[Explain the circumstances of your injury/illness, any medical evidence linking it to your work, and how it has affected your ability to perform your job responsibilities.] I am committed to recovering and returning to work as soon as possible.

I kindly request a review of my workers' compensation claim and hope for a positive reconsideration.

Your support is vital during this challenging time.

Thank you for your understanding and consideration.

Sincerely,
