

Admission Appeal Letter Template

Dear Admissions Committee,

I am writing this letter to appeal the decision regarding my application for admission to [University/Institution Name] for the upcoming academic year. I am truly enthusiastic about the opportunity to join the [desired program] and contribute to the academic community.

[Explain any relevant information that was not adequately addressed in your initial application or any recent achievements.] I believe that my dedication and potential align well with the values and goals of [University/Institution Name].

I kindly request your reconsideration of my application and the opportunity to further demonstrate my qualifications for admission. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
