Hi [Client's Name],

I came across your recent campaign for [Project/Brand], and I was truly impressed by its concept and visual direction. I'd love the chance to collaborate with you on your next photography project.

My focus is on lifestyle and product photography, and I specialize in creating visuals that tell authentic brand stories. You can check out my portfolio here: [link].

If you're open to a chat, I'd love to discuss ideas and see how I can contribute to your next campaign.

Best,
