

Funny Creative Studio Job Email

Subject: The Designer You Didn't Know You Needed!

Hey [Studio Name] Team,

I'll keep it short – I'm a creative designer who believes a great concept can start on a napkin and end up on a billboard. I've worked with color palettes that could make rainbows jealous and logos that have actually made clients smile.

I'd love to join your team and turn caffeine and creativity into award-winning designs. My portfolio's attached – take a peek when your coffee's brewing!

Cheers,

[Your Name]
