

Casual Network Referral Request

Subject: Quick favor - referral opportunity?

Hi [Name],

Hope you're doing great! I've been thinking about our conversation at [event/meeting] about the exciting work happening at [company/industry].

I'm currently exploring new opportunities and came across an opening at [company name] that seems like a perfect fit for my background in [relevant area]. Since you mentioned you know people there, I was wondering if you'd feel comfortable making an introduction or providing a referral?

I don't want to put you in an awkward position, so please feel free to say no if it doesn't feel right. I just thought it was worth asking since you seemed to think my experience might be valuable to companies like theirs.

If you're open to it, I'd be happy to send over my resume and we could grab coffee to discuss it further. Either way, thanks for being such a great connection!

Cheers,

[Your Name]
