Break Up Love Letter

Dear [Name],

It is with a heavy heart that I write this letter to you. As much as it pains me to say it, I think it's time for us to go our separate ways. I know that this may come as a shock to you, but I've been feeling like something isn't quite right between us for a while now.

I want you to know that this decision is not one that I have taken lightly. I have spent a lot of time thinking about us and our relationship, and I have come to the conclusion that it's not healthy for either of us to continue down this path. We both deserve to be with someone who makes us happy, and I don't think that's something we can give each other right now.

I want you to know that I will always cherish the memories that we've shared together. I will never forget the way you made me feel when we first started dating, or the way you always knew how to make me laugh. You will always hold a special place in my heart, and I will never forget the love that we shared.

But I also want you to know that it's time for us to move on. I don't want to hold you back from finding happiness with someone else, and I don't want to be held back from finding it myself. It's time for us to say goodbye and move on to the next chapter of our lives.

I hope that someday we can look back on our relationship and remember the good times with fondness. But for now, I think it's best for us to part ways. I wish you all the best in your future endeavors and I hope that you find the love and happiness that you deserve.

With love and respect,

[Your Name]
