

Heartfelt Business Suggestion Letter to the CEO

Subject: A Suggestion from the Heart About Employee Engagement

Dear [CEO's Name],

I've always admired how our company values people as much as profits. With that in mind, I wanted to suggest establishing a quarterly recognition program to celebrate employees who go above and beyond. Recognizing effort publicly can boost morale and inspire others to do their best. I've spoken with several colleagues who feel this would create an even stronger sense of belonging within the organization. It's a simple gesture, but one that can have lasting effects on company culture.

Thank you for listening and for always valuing our voices.

Warm regards,

[Your Name]
