

Serious court-related character reference

Subject: Character Reference for [Name]

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing this character reference for [Name] to provide insight into [his/her/their] character for consideration in legal proceedings. I have known [Name] for [number] years as [relationship]. In that time, I have consistently found [him/her/them] to be responsible, respectful, and compassionate.

While the circumstances that have brought [Name] before the court are serious, I would like to highlight that [he/she/they] is generally a law-abiding citizen who contributes positively to the community. [Name] has shown remorse for any mistakes and is committed to making positive changes.

I respectfully request that you take into account [Name]'s character, community involvement, and willingness to learn and improve when making your decision.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

Get more templates here: <https://www.lettersandtemplates.com/letters/character-reference-letter>