Scholarly acceptance for academic symposium

Subject: Acceptance of Invitation to Present Research Findings

Dear Professor [Name] and Conference Committee,

I am honored to accept your invitation to present my research at the [Academic Conference Name] scheduled for [dates] at [University/Location]. This opportunity to share my findings with esteemed colleagues in our field is both exciting and meaningful.

My presentation, titled "[Research Title]," will focus on [brief description of research] and its implications for [field of study]. I plan to present [methodology/findings] and facilitate discussion about future research directions. The 45-minute format including discussion time is ideal for comprehensive coverage.

I will submit my full abstract by [deadline] as requested, along with my institutional affiliation details and current CV. Please advise if you require any additional documentation or if there are specific formatting requirements for my presentation materials.

I look forward to the peer review process and welcome any feedback from the selection committee. This conference has an excellent reputation for fostering meaningful academic discourse, and I'm excited to contribute to the scholarly dialogue.

Thank you for considering my work worthy of this platform. I anticipate valuable exchanges with fellow researchers and look forward to the conference proceedings.

Sincerely,

[Your Name, Ph.D.]
