

Introduction to Insurance Company or Restoration Work

Subject: Emergency Restoration & Insurance Reconstruction Services

Dear [Recipient Name],

[Company Name] specializes in emergency restoration and insurance reconstruction services, and I'm writing to introduce our capabilities to [Insurance Company Name]. We understand that your policyholders need fast, reliable, and professional service during stressful situations, and we're equipped to deliver exactly that.

Our services include:

- 24/7 emergency response for fire, water, and storm damage
- Complete reconstruction from mitigation through final restoration
- Direct insurance billing and Xactimate estimating
- Licensed, bonded, and insured with comprehensive coverage
- In-house crews for faster mobilization and quality control

We've worked with [other insurance companies/adjusters] on [number] claims, maintaining a reputation for accurate estimates, transparent communication, and quality workmanship. Our project managers are experienced in navigating the claims process and understand the documentation requirements that make your job easier.

What sets us apart is our commitment to treating policyholders with compassion while protecting the insurance company's interests through efficient, cost-effective repairs. We complete projects an average of [timeframe] faster than industry standards, reducing ALE costs and improving customer satisfaction.

We would welcome the opportunity to be added to your preferred contractor list. I've enclosed our company information, insurance certificates, and references from adjusters and policyholders we've served.

Thank you for considering [Company Name] as a trusted restoration partner.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
