

Professional Constructive Dismissal Letter

Subject: Notification of Constructive Dismissal

Dear [Employer Name],

I am writing to formally notify you of my resignation due to constructive dismissal. Over the past [duration], I have been subjected to [specific issues, e.g., hostile work environment, significant changes in duties, unjust treatment], which have made continued employment untenable.

Despite my efforts to resolve these issues internally, including [mention any previous complaints or discussions], there has been no satisfactory resolution. As a result, I am compelled to consider my position terminated by the conditions imposed.

I request acknowledgment of this letter and look forward to your response regarding final settlement and any outstanding obligations.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

[Position]

[Date]

Get more templates here:

<https://www.lettersandtemplates.com/letters/constructive-dismissal-letter-to-employer-example>