

Professional / Legal Tone Constructive Dismissal Letter

Subject: Resignation Due to Constructive Dismissal

Dear [Manager's Name],

I hereby submit my resignation from [Company Name], effective [Date], due to constructive dismissal. The changes in my employment terms, including [specific breaches or changes], have significantly altered the essential terms of my contract.

I have attempted to resolve these matters internally; however, the unresolved issues leave me with no alternative but to resign. Please consider this letter as formal notice, and I request written acknowledgment of my resignation.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
