

Formal Cease and Desist Letter for Online Content Infringement

Subject: Cease and Desist - Copyright Infringement Notice

Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to inform you that content belonging to me has been used without authorization on your website/platform [Website URL]. Specifically, [describe the copyrighted work: article, image, video, etc.] originally published on [Your URL/Platform] on [Date] has been reproduced on your site without my permission.

As the copyright holder, I have exclusive rights to reproduce, distribute, and display this work. Your unauthorized use constitutes copyright infringement under the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA) and applicable copyright laws.

I demand that you immediately remove all infringing content from your website and cease any further use of my copyrighted materials. Please confirm removal within 10 business days of receiving this letter.

Failure to comply will leave me no choice but to pursue legal remedies, including potential damages and attorney fees.

I expect your prompt attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
