Quick Counter Offer Email for Freelance-to-Full-Time Transition

Subject: Full-Time Offer - Quick Counter

Hi [Manager's Name],

Thanks for the full-time offer! Excited to make it official and dive deeper into [company projects].

Quick counter on the salary: $[amount] instead of $[offered amount].

My rationale: As a freelancer, I was billing [rate] for similar work, and going full-time means giving up other clients and project variety. The increase accounts for benefits and exclusivity.

Plus, you already know my work quality and speed from our [project duration] together - no learning curve needed!

Let me know your thoughts. Ready to make this transition seamless.

Best,

[Your Name]
