

Funny Declaration Break Up Message

Subject: It's Not You, It's Us

Hey [Recipient Name],

After thorough consideration, I've concluded that our relationship has become a tyranny over my free time. This letter serves as my declaration of independence from all your Netflix choices and snack habits.

Let's part ways amicably, with laughter and fond memories, and remember that breakups are the only things that age better than fine wine.

Cheers,

[Your Name]
