

Serious Warning Notice

Subject: CRITICAL - Deferred Payment LC Expiring Soon [LC Number]

Dear [Beneficiary],

This is a critical notice regarding the above-referenced Deferred Payment Letter of Credit which is set to expire on [expiry date] - only [number] days remaining.

We have not yet received any documents for presentation under this credit. If you intend to utilize this LC, immediate action is required to avoid expiry and potential loss of payment security.

Required immediate actions:

- Prepare all required documents per LC terms
- Arrange shipment if not already completed
- Present documents through authorized banking channels
- Ensure all conditions are met before expiry

Please note that no documents can be accepted after the expiry date, and we cannot guarantee extension without applicant consent. This could result in significant financial loss for your company.

Contact us immediately if you need assistance or clarification on any requirements.

Time is of the essence.

Seriously yours,

[Bank Name]

LC Operations Manager
