

Product Liability Claim

Subject: Product Liability Claim - Defective [Product Name]

Dear Legal Department,

On [Date], I purchased your [product name], model [number], from [retailer]. The product failed catastrophically on [date], causing significant injury and property damage.

The product defect resulted in [description of malfunction]. This failure caused me to sustain [injuries] requiring medical treatment costing $[amount]. Additionally, the malfunction damaged my property, resulting in repair costs of $[amount].

Your product's design defect and inadequate safety warnings directly caused my injuries. I have medical records, photographs of the defective product, and witness statements supporting my claim.

I am seeking compensation totaling $[amount] for medical expenses, property damage, pain and suffering, and lost income. This settlement demand is valid for 30 days.

Please forward this matter to your insurance carrier and legal counsel immediately. I am prepared to pursue litigation if necessary.

Regards,

[Your Name]

Get more templates here: <https://www.lettersandtemplates.com/letters/direct-claim-letter-examples>