Directive Letter for Compliance with New Government Regulation

Subject: Compliance Directive â€“ New Data Protection Regulations

Dear Staff,

This directive informs you of our obligation to comply with the newly enacted Data Protection Act effective immediately. The law mandates stricter handling of personal and client information across all departments.

All employees must review the attached compliance guidelines and attend the mandatory data protection workshop next week. Non-compliance could result in legal consequences for both the company and individuals.

Your commitment to following this directive is vital for maintaining our organizationâ€™s integrity and compliance standards.

Best regards,

[Your Name]

Legal and Compliance Officer

Get more templates here: https://www.lettersandtemplates.com/letters/directive-letter