

Personal compassionate rejection

Subject: Your Kindness Means Everything - Unable to Accept

Dear [Name],

Your offer to help means more to me than words can express. In times like these, knowing that people like you care enough to reach out and offer support truly touches my heart.

However, I must respectfully decline your generous donation. While I'm facing challenges, I believe there are others in our community who need assistance more urgently than I do. I would feel better knowing your kindness reaches someone in greater need.

Please don't let this discourage your wonderful spirit of giving. The fact that you thought of me is a gift in itself. Your friendship and moral support are more valuable than any monetary contribution.

Thank you for being such a caring person. I'm blessed to know you.

With heartfelt gratitude,

[Your Name]

Get more templates here:

<https://www.lettersandtemplates.com/letters/donation-rejection-denial-refusal-letter>