

Informal rejection maintaining personal boundaries

Subject: Thanks, but I'll Have to Pass

Hi [Donor Name],

I really appreciate you thinking of me and wanting to help out. It means a lot that you care enough to offer support.

However, I've made it a personal policy not to accept financial help from friends and colleagues. It's nothing personal at all - I just prefer to keep my personal and financial matters separate to avoid any potential awkwardness down the road.

I hope you understand where I'm coming from. Your friendship and support in other ways mean the world to me, and that's honestly more valuable than any monetary assistance.

Thanks again for being such a thoughtful friend.

Take care,

[Your Name]
