

Team-focused Appreciative Farewell

Dear [Name] and Team,

Today marks the end of an era for our team as we say farewell to [Name], who has been an invaluable member of our group for the past [time period]. While we're excited about the new opportunities awaiting [him/her], we can't let this moment pass without acknowledging the significant impact [he/she] has made on our team and our work.

[Name] brought a unique combination of technical expertise, creative problem-solving, and collaborative spirit that elevated every project [he/she] touched. Whether it was [his/her] innovative approach to [specific examples] or [his/her] ability to keep us all motivated during challenging deadlines, [Name] consistently demonstrated the qualities that make teams successful.

Beyond professional contributions, [Name] has been the teammate we could always count on – the one who celebrated our wins, supported us through difficulties, and somehow always knew when we needed a coffee break or a moment of levity to reset our perspective. [His/Her] positive energy and genuine care for others created an atmosphere where everyone felt valued and supported.

As we move forward without [Name], we'll undoubtedly feel [his/her] absence. However, we're also grateful for the systems [he/she] helped put in place, the knowledge [he/she] shared so generously, and the collaborative culture [he/she] helped foster. These contributions will continue to benefit our team long after [his/her] departure.

To [Name]: thank you for being not just a colleague, but a friend and mentor to so many of us. Your dedication, professionalism, and warmth have made a lasting impression that will influence how we work together moving forward.

We wish you tremendous success in your new role and hope you'll stay in touch to share your adventures with us.

With appreciation and best wishes,

[Your Name] on behalf of the [Team Name]
