

Funny Employee Referral Email

Subject: This Candidate Might Steal My Job!

Hey [Hiring Manager's First Name],

I wanted to refer [Candidate's Name] for the [Job Title] position. Honestly, they're so good at what they do that I'm half afraid they might outshine me if you hire them! But jokes aside, they're brilliant at [skill area], super reliable, and fun to work with.

Hire them before another company does – seriously.

Cheers,

[Your Name]
