

Congratulations letter for distant friends

My dear friend [Name],

Even though miles separate us, my heart feels so close to you right now as I write to congratulate you on your engagement! The moment I received your news, I felt such overwhelming joy and excitement that I had to sit down and write you a proper letter.

Distance has never diminished our friendship, and knowing that you have found your person makes my heart so incredibly full. From our phone calls and video chats, I could tell that [Partner's Name] was special, but hearing about your engagement has confirmed what I already suspected â€” you two are absolutely meant to be together.

I wish I could be there to hug you both and celebrate in person, but please know that my thoughts, prayers, and best wishes are with you every single day. I'm already planning how I can be involved in your wedding, even from afar!

Please give [Partner's Name] my warmest congratulations and let them know how grateful I am that they make you so incredibly happy. You deserve all the love and joy in the world, and I can't wait to witness the beautiful life you two will build together.

I'm counting down the days until I can celebrate with you in person!

With all my love and congratulations from across the miles,

[Your Name]
