Subject: First Warning Letter

Dear [Employee's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to address some concerns that have come to our attention regarding your job performance and conduct at the workplace. As an organization, we value the contributions of each employee, and it is essential that all team members maintain a high standard of professionalism and dedication to their responsibilities.

The purpose of this letter is to issue you a First Warning due to the following issues:

- 1. Attendance: We have noticed that your attendance has been inconsistent recently. Punctuality and regular attendance are crucial for the smooth functioning of our team and to meet our organizational objectives.
- 2. Quality of Work: There have been instances where the quality of your work did not meet the expected standards. It is essential to deliver outputs that are accurate, well-executed, and aligned with our company's guidelines.
- 3. Communication: Effective communication is vital in a collaborative work environment. We have received feedback from colleagues and supervisors about your need to improve in this area, both in written and verbal communication.

4. Adherence to Company Policies: It has come to our attention that you have violated some of our company policies. As an employee, it is crucial to comply with all policies and procedures to maintain a positive work environment.

Please note that this warning is not a termination of your employment, but rather a formal notice to address these concerns promptly. We believe in providing our employees with the opportunity to improve their performance and conduct.

To rectify these issues, we expect the following actions from you:

- 1. Improved Attendance: Ensure punctuality and regular attendance. In case of any emergencies or unforeseen circumstances, promptly inform your supervisor as per company protocol.
- 2. Enhanced Work Quality: Pay attention to the quality of your work and seek feedback from your supervisor if necessary. Take the necessary steps to improve the accuracy and precision of your deliverables.
- 3. Effective Communication: Work on improving your communication skills, both written and verbal. Listen actively and express yourself clearly and professionally.
- 4. Adherence to Company Policies: Familiarize yourself with all company policies and adhere to them strictly.

To support your improvement, we will schedule regular meetings with you to provide feedback and assess your progress. Failure to demonstrate significant improvement within the specified timeframe may result in further disciplinary action, up to and including termination of your employment.

Please sign and return a copy of this letter to indicate your understanding of its contents. You may also use this opportunity to provide any additional information or concerns you may have.

We genuinely hope that this warning serves as a catalyst for positive change and that we can work together to overcome these challenges. If you require any assistance or have any questions, do not hesitate to reach out to your supervisor or the HR department.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
