

Food Complaint Letter

Dear [Restaurant Manager],

I came to your restaurant on [some date] and was really disappointed from the quality of food that was served to me. [Describe what was wrong with the food. Be specific and give as much details as possible]

That is not the quality of food that one would expect from a restaurant of your level and reputation. You need to make sure that your customers are getting the highest caliber of available ingredients as well as proper preparation.

I trust that this is not the type of letters that you wish to receive from your customers and I also trust that you are going to deal with this complaint in a strict manner while taking all the necessary measures to make sure that such incidents do not happen again.

You may contact me at [xxxxxxx] if you want to ask me questions about the incident.

Regards
