Dear [Executive Name],

Imagine [number] thriving [Brand Name] locations across [region], each one buzzing with satisfied customers and exceeding performance benchmarks. That's the vision I'm ready to turn into reality—and I want to partner with you to make it happen.

I'm not interested in opening just one franchise. I'm proposing a multi-unit development agreement that will establish your brand as the dominant player in [region/territory] over the next [timeframe].

Here's why this opportunity makes sense for both of us:

THE VISION

My plan involves opening [number] locations strategically positioned across [describe territory]. Each location has been carefully selected based on comprehensive market analysis, demographic trends, and competitive positioning. This isn't just expansion—it's calculated market domination.

WHY I'M THE RIGHT PARTNER

- Proven track record: I've built and scaled [number] businesses with combined annual revenue of $[amount]
- Deep market knowledge: [Years] of experience operating in this region with established relationships and local insights
- Financial strength: $[amount] in committed capital, plus additional credit lines for rapid expansion
- Operational expertise: Systems and teams already in place to manage multiple locations simultaneously

THE COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE

The [region] market is underserved and ripe for disruption. Your brand's unique positioning, combined with my local execution capabilities, creates an unbeatable combination. By moving quickly with a multi-unit strategy, we can capture market share before competitors react.

EXECUTION TIMELINE

- Months 1-3: Site selection and lease negotiations for Location 1
- Months 4-6: Buildout and training
- Month 7: Grand opening Location 1
- Months 8-12: Repeat for Location 2
- Years 2-5: Launch remaining [number] locations

THE COMMITMENT

I'm not just buying franchises—I'm investing in a long-term partnership. I will dedicate myself full-time to this venture, relocate if necessary, and build a management team that reflects your brand's excellence. Success isn't just my goal; it's my guarantee.

Let's schedule a call to discuss this opportunity. I'm ready to move fast, and I believe you'll find my proposal both compelling and executable.

Ready to grow together,
