

Humorous letter pretending to be from an elf

Subject: Your Elf Has Some Thoughts

Dear [Family Name],

Greetings from the North Pole! I've been reporting your shenanigans to Santa all season, and let's just say he's impressed by your creativity (and slightly alarmed by the living room fort that almost touched the ceiling).

I wanted to let you know that cookies disappear faster when I'm around. Not that I'm complaining—I'm just doing my elf duty.

Keep up the holiday cheer, and remember: I see everything (even the glitter explosion from last week).

Mischievously yours,

[Elf's Name]
