

Funny holiday letter for friends

Subject: Merry Chaos and Cheer

Hey [Friend's Name],

Another year, another batch of questionable holiday photos, overeaten cookies, and slightly awkward family dinners. Congratulations on surviving it all!

Here's to hoping your presents are better than your fruitcake, your holiday lights don't electrocute anyone, and that Santa finally forgives us for last year's prank involving the fake reindeer.

Let's make this season hilariously unforgettable. Cheers to fun, friends, and festive disasters!

Yours in chaos and cheer,

[Your Name]
