

Humorous letter to family for the holidays

Subject: Ho Ho Hold My Eggnog

Dear Family,

As the holiday season descends upon us like a glittery avalanche, I wanted to send my love, laughter, and gentle reminders that Iâ€™m officially in charge of dessert this year.

Please bring your appetite, patience for dad jokes, and willingness to participate in questionable games invented on the spot.

Wishing everyone a festive season filled with warmth, chaos, and minimal burnt cookies.

Love and laughs,

[Your Name]
