

Heartfelt message to a friend with cancer

Dear [Friend's Name],

I can only imagine how overwhelming this journey must feel, but I want you to remember that you are not walking it alone. You have friends who care deeply for you, who admire your strength, and who are here whenever you need us.

I admire your courage and resilience more than words can say. You've always been someone who faces challenges head-on, and I believe in you completely.

Please count on me for anything—whether it's running errands, sitting with you through treatments, or just making you laugh when you need it most. I am here, always.

With love and prayers,

[Your Name]
