

Casual supportive message for a friend with cancer

Hey [Friend's Name],

I know this isn't an easy time for you, but I also know you've got the heart of a fighter.

You've always been strong-willed, and I believe that spirit will carry you through.

I'm here whenever you need me—whether it's for a late-night chat, a good laugh, or just sitting in silence together. Whatever helps you, I'm in.

You're going to get through this, and I'll be right by your side the whole way.

With love,

[Your Name]
