

Faith-based letter for someone with cancer

Dear [Name],

During this difficult time, I pray for your healing and comfort. God's love is with you always, and I trust in His power to guide you through this challenge.

Remember that faith can move mountains, and your courage has already touched so many hearts.

Lean on God, and lean on those of us who love you dearly.

You are never alone in this fight. We will continue to pray for your health, strength, and peace.

With faith and love,

[Your Name]
