

Funny holiday request message

Subject: Requesting a Break Before I Turn Into a Robot!

Hi [Manager's Name],

I think my keyboard is starting to miss me a little too much, so I'd like to request some time off from [Start Date] to [End Date]. Don't worry, I'll make sure the team doesn't run into chaos while I'm away.

Looking forward to your approval before I start practicing my "out of office" dance!

Cheers,

[Your Name]
