

Serious Injury Claim Letter for Long-Term Disability

Subject: Long-Term Disability Injury Claim

Dear [Insurance Company/Claims Officer],

I am writing to formally claim compensation for the severe injuries sustained on [date] at [location].

The accident has left me with long-term disabilities that significantly impair my ability to work and carry out daily activities. Attached are the medical reports, treatment history, and confirmation of disability from my physician.

Given the seriousness of my condition, I request comprehensive compensation covering medical expenses, rehabilitation, and loss of income. I ask for your prompt consideration of this claim as it is crucial for my ongoing care and well-being.

Sincerely,

[Your Full Name]

Get more templates here: <https://www.lettersandtemplates.com/letters/injury-claim-letter>