

Rejection letter including constructive feedback

Subject: Interview Feedback and Decision

Dear [Candidate's Name],

Thank you for your interest in the [Job Title] position at [Company Name] and for taking the time to attend our interview process. We valued your participation and thoughtful responses.

After reviewing your application, we have decided not to move forward at this time. However, we would like to share some constructive feedback: [Insert specific feedback, e.g., "We recommend highlighting your project management experience more strongly in future interviews."]

We believe your career holds great promise and hope this feedback will be useful for your professional development.

Best wishes,

[Your Name]

Get more templates here: <https://www.lettersandtemplates.com/letters/interview-rejection-letter>