Dear [Company Name] Team,

Subject: Temporary Leave Announcement

I hope this message finds you well. We want to inform you about an upcoming change that will impact our team dynamics. [Employee Name], [Employee Position], will be taking a temporary leave of absence starting from [Start Date] to [End Date].

During this period, [Employee Name] will be attending to personal matters that require their full attention. We understand that this may cause adjustments in our team's workload, and we are committed to ensuring a smooth transition to minimize any disruptions.

In [Employee Name]'s absence, [Alternate Employee Name], [Alternate Employee Position], will be stepping in to manage their responsibilities. [Alternate Employee Name] has been briefed about the tasks and projects [Employee Name] was handling, and we are confident in their ability to maintain the high standards of work that we uphold at [Company Name].

We encourage all team members to lend their support to [Alternate Employee Name] during this time. If you have any questions or require assistance related to [Employee Name]'s tasks, please do not hesitate to reach out to [Alternate Employee Name] or [Supervisor's Name] in the HR department.

We understand the importance of maintaining open communication and teamwork, and we believe that together, we can successfully navigate through this temporary transition.

We want to take this opportunity to wish [Employee Name] all the best during their leave, and we look forward to their return on [Return Date].

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
