

Career Change Letter to Marketing

Subject: Career Transition into Marketing

Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to share my interest in joining your marketing team. After several years in a different industry, I have discovered my passion for marketing, particularly in content creation and brand storytelling.

I have completed relevant certifications and have volunteered to manage social media for local businesses to gain practical experience. I am eager to bring my fresh perspective, creativity, and dedication to your team.

Thank you for considering my application.

Warm regards,

[Your Name]

Get more templates here:

<https://www.lettersandtemplates.com/letters/marketing-and-advertising-cover-letters>