

Creative internship email with an informal tone

Subject: Fresh Ideas for Your Marketing Team

Hi [Hiring Manager's Name],

I hope this message finds you well! I'm reaching out because I'm very excited about the Marketing Internship at [Company Name]. I'm passionate about storytelling, branding, and creative campaigns that really connect with people—and I'd love to bring some fresh ideas to your team.

In my university projects, I've designed Instagram campaigns that boosted engagement by over 40% and ran surveys to help student clubs better understand their audiences. I thrive on creativity, teamwork, and thinking outside the box. I believe that with my enthusiasm and innovative spirit, I could help support your upcoming campaigns.

If you're looking for someone who can mix hard work with creativity, I'd love to chat. Thank you for considering my application—I'm really looking forward to the possibility of contributing to your brand.

Best regards,

[Your Name]

Get more templates here:

<https://www.lettersandtemplates.com/letters/marketing-internship-cover-letter>