

Casual style for small company or startup

Subject: Internship Application

Hello [Hiring Manager's First Name],

I came across your opening for a Marketing Intern, and I'd love to apply. I admire the creative work your team is doing, especially the recent social campaign—it was fun, smart, and clearly effective.

I've been studying marketing while also experimenting with my own projects like running a small blog and managing a friend's local store Instagram. I've learned how important it is to adapt content to different audiences, and I'd love to grow these skills further with your team.

I'm motivated, curious, and ready to contribute. If you're open to meeting, I'd be happy to share more about what I can bring.

Cheers,

[Your Name]
