

Funny Medical Leave Email

Subject: Sick Leave " Doctor Ordered Couch Duty

Hi [Manager's Name],

Turns out I'm not invincible after all! The doctor has officially sentenced me to "couch duty" with plenty of rest, fluids, and zero spreadsheets. I need to take medical leave from [start date] until [end date].

Don't worry, I'll return fully recharged and ready to tackle the mountain of work waiting for me. Thanks for covering for me while I recover.

Best regards,

[Your Name]
