

Career Change Learnership Motivation Letter

Subject: Learnership Application - Career Transition to [Field]

Dear [Program Coordinator],

I am writing to apply for the [learnership program name] as I seek to transition my career into [new industry/field]. After [number] years working in [current/previous field], I have realized my true passion lies in [new field], and I am committed to making this career change through structured training and development.

My professional background in [previous field] has equipped me with valuable transferable skills including [list relevant skills such as problem-solving, communication, project management]. While these experiences have been rewarding, I have consistently found myself drawn to [aspects of new field], which has motivated me to pursue formal training in this area.

I have already taken proactive steps toward this transition by [mention any courses, self-study, volunteering, or relevant activities]. This learnership represents the ideal opportunity to formalize my knowledge, gain industry-recognized qualifications, and develop practical competencies under expert guidance.

What sets me apart is my maturity, life experience, and genuine commitment to this career path. I am not entering this field on a whim – I have carefully considered this decision and am prepared for the challenges ahead. My previous work experience has taught me discipline, accountability, and the value of continuous learning.

I am particularly impressed by [Company Name]'s reputation for [mention specific aspects], and I believe this learnership will provide the comprehensive foundation I need to build a successful career in [new field]. I am fully committed to dedicating myself to both the academic and practical components of the program.

I would appreciate the opportunity to discuss how my unique background and determined mindset would benefit your learnership cohort.

Thank you for considering my application.

Kind regards,

[Your Full Name]
