

Light-hearted motivational message for employees

Subject: Keep Being Awesome (and Slightly Crazy)

Hello Team,

Just a quick reminder that you are doing an amazing jobâ€”and yes, a little craziness helps too!

Your creativity, humor, and dedication make this team not just successful, but fun to work with.

Keep thinking outside the box, helping each other, and, of course, keeping your coffee cups full. You make [Company Name] a fantastic place to be.

Thanks for everything you do!
