

Noise Complaint Letter for Late-Night Parties

Subject: Request Regarding Late-Night Gatherings

Dear [Neighbor's Name],

I hope you're well. I'm writing to address an issue concerning noise from gatherings at your residence.

I completely understand the desire to entertain friends and celebrate occasions – I enjoy hosting guests myself. However, your recent parties have extended well past midnight with high noise levels that carry into my home, making it impossible for my family to sleep.

Specifically, the events on [list dates] continued until [times] with loud music, voices, and activity.

Our community guidelines specify quiet hours from [time] to [time], and these gatherings have consistently exceeded reasonable noise levels during these protected hours.

I'm not asking you to stop entertaining, but I would greatly appreciate it if you could:

- Keep music and noise at moderate levels after [time]
- Consider moving gatherings indoors after [time]
- Inform me in advance of planned events so I can prepare accordingly

A little advance notice and consideration would go a long way. I'm happy to extend the same courtesy should I host any events.

Thank you for being mindful of our shared living environment.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
