

Employment No Claim Verification

Subject: No Claim Declaration for Employment Verification

Dear HR Manager,

This letter serves as a formal declaration that I have no outstanding claims, disputes, or legal proceedings against my former employer, [Company Name], where I was employed as [Position] from [Start Date] to [End Date].

I confirm that all dues, including salary, benefits, and reimbursements, have been settled satisfactorily. There are no pending grievances, complaints, or claims of any nature from my side against the organization or any of its employees.

I am providing this declaration as part of my background verification process for my new employment opportunity. Should you require any additional information or documentation, please feel free to contact me.

This declaration is made voluntarily and in good faith for official purposes.

Best regards,
