

Service Provider No Claim Statement

Subject: No Claim Declaration - Service Contract [Contract Number]

Dear Service Manager,

This letter serves as formal notification that I have no outstanding claims or disputes regarding the services provided under contract [Contract Number] dated [Contract Date].

The services rendered by [Company Name] were completed to my satisfaction within the agreed timeframe and budget. All deliverables met the specified requirements, and the quality of work was acceptable for the project scope.

I confirm that all payments have been processed correctly, and there are no billing discrepancies or service-related issues that require resolution. Any minor concerns that arose during the project were addressed promptly and satisfactorily by your team.

This declaration is provided to close our business relationship amicably and ensure clear records for both parties. I appreciate the professional service provided and may consider future engagements.

Best regards,
